

Exercise 1: Complete the sentences using the future perfect simple tense of the verbs in brackets.

1. By next month, she _____ (finish) her studies and will have earned her degree.
2. I'm sure they _____ (complete) the project by the end of the week.
3. By the time you wake up, I _____ (prepare) breakfast.
4. They _____ (already / leave) for their vacation when we arrive at their house.
5. The company _____ (achieve) its sales target by the end of the year.
6. I hope to hear from her soon; she _____ (email) me before the day ends.
7. By next year, he _____ (already / visit) all the famous landmarks in the city.
8. She _____ (already / read) the book by the time the movie adaptation comes out.
9. By the time the guests arrive, we _____ (decorate) the entire party venue.
10. I'm confident that he _____ (graduate) with honors by the time he finishes his degree.

Exercise 2: Use the future perfect simple tense to talk about future accomplishments.

1. (He / work) _____ at the company for ten years by the end of this month.
2. (They / save) _____ enough money to buy a new house before the end of the year.
3. (She / write) _____ her autobiography by the time she turns 40.
4. (We / travel) _____ to all the continents in the world before retirement.
5. (I / study) _____ for this exam for months before I take it.

Exercise 3: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the future perfect simple tense.

1. By the time they finish the race, we _____ (already / prepare) the celebration.
2. He _____ (not / see) his family for a year when he returns home for the holidays.
3. I'm confident that they _____ (solve) the problem before the meeting starts.
4. By the end of the week, she _____ (read) all the books on her reading list.
5. The kids _____ (play) in the park after they finish their homework.

Exercise 4: Rewrite the sentences using the future perfect simple tense.

1. We will have completed the renovation by the end of this month.
2. She will have finished writing her novel by next year.
3. They will have solved the puzzle before the competition starts.
4. He will have cooked dinner by the time we get home.
5. They will have finished the project by the end of this week.

Exercise 5: Use the future perfect simple tense to make predictions about the future.

1. By the time they get back, we will have finished the movie.
2. The students will have studied for the test by the end of the day.
3. I'm sure she will have completed the marathon before it gets dark.
4. By next summer, he will have visited all the national parks in the country.
5. They will have arrived at the destination before the sun sets.

Exercise 6: Complete the sentences using the future perfect simple tense of the verbs in brackets.

By the time you return from your trip, I will have read all the books you recommended.

Exercise 7: Choose the correct tense (future perfect simple or future simple) to complete the sentences.

1. By the time you arrive, we will have finished all the preparations for the party.
2. I am sure she will have achieved her dreams by the time she retires.
3. They will already have bought the tickets when we get there.
4. I promise I will give you all the details before the meeting.
5. The kids will play in the playground once they finish their homework.

Exercise 8: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the future perfect simple tense.

1. By the time they arrive, I will have already left for home.
2. He will have learned French for five years by the time he visits Paris.
3. They will have met their sales targets by the end of the quarter.
4. I will not have finished my assignment before the deadline.
5. By next week, she will have saved enough money for her vacation.

Exercise 9: Rewrite the sentences using the future perfect simple tense.

1. We will have completed the project by the end of this week.
2. She will have finished her studies by the time she turns 25.
3. They will have traveled to all the continents by next year.
4. He will have worked at the company for five years by the end of this month.
5. They will have built a new house before the winter comes

Exercise 1: Complete the sentences using the future perfect simple tense of the verbs in brackets.

1. By next month, she will have finished her studies and earned her degree.
2. I'm sure they will have completed the project by the end of the week.
3. By the time you wake up, I will have prepared breakfast.
4. They will have already left for their vacation when we arrive at their house.
5. The company will have achieved its sales target by the end of the year.
6. I hope to hear from her soon; she will have emailed me before the day ends.
7. By next year, he will have already visited all the famous landmarks in the city.
8. She will have already read the book by the time the movie adaptation comes out.
9. By the time the guests arrive, we will have decorated the entire party venue.
10. I'm confident that he will have graduated with honors by the time he finishes his degree.

Exercise 2: Use the future perfect simple tense to talk about future accomplishments.

1. (He / work) He will have worked at the company for ten years by the end of this month.
2. (They / save) They will have saved enough money to buy a new house before the end of the year.
3. (She / write) She will have written her autobiography by the time she turns 40.
4. (We / travel) We will have traveled to all the continents in the world before retirement.
5. (I / study) I will have studied for this exam for months before I take it.

Exercise 3: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the future perfect simple tense.

1. By the time they finish the race, we will have already prepared the celebration.
2. He will not have seen his family for a year when he returns home for the holidays.
3. I'm confident that they will have solved the problem before the meeting starts.
4. By the end of the week, she will have read all the books on her reading list.
5. The kids will play in the park after they finish their homework.

Exercise 4: Rewrite the sentences using the future perfect simple tense.

1. We will have completed the renovation by the end of this month.
2. She will have finished writing her novel by next year.
3. They will have solved the puzzle before the competition starts.
4. He will have cooked dinner by the time we get home.
5. They will have finished the project by the end of this week.

Exercise 5: Use the future perfect simple tense to make predictions about the future.

1. By the time they get back, we will have finished the movie.
2. The students will have studied for the test by the end of the day.
3. I'm sure she will have completed the marathon before it gets dark.
4. By next summer, he will have visited all the national parks in the country.
5. They will have arrived at the destination before the sun sets.

Exercise 6: Complete the sentences using the future perfect simple tense of the verbs in brackets.

By the time you return from your trip, I will have read all the books you recommended.

Exercise 7: Choose the correct tense (future perfect simple or future simple) to complete the sentences.

1. By the time you arrive, we will have finished all the preparations for the party.
2. I am sure she will have achieved her dreams by the time she retires.
3. They will already have bought the tickets when we get there.
4. I promise I will give you all the details before the meeting.
5. The kids will play in the playground once they finish their homework.

Exercise 8: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the future perfect simple tense.

1. By the time they arrive, I will have already left for home.
2. He will have learned French for five years by the time he visits Paris.
3. They will have met their sales targets by the end of the quarter.
4. I will not have finished my assignment before the deadline.
5. By next week, she will have saved enough money for her vacation.

Exercise 1: Complete the sentences using the future perfect simple tense of the verbs in brackets.

1. By next month, she will have finished her studies and earned her degree.
2. I'm sure they will have completed the project by the end of the week.
3. By the time you wake up, I will have prepared breakfast.
4. They will have already left for their vacation when we arrive at their house.
5. The company will have achieved its sales target by the end of the year.
6. I hope to hear from her soon; she will have emailed me before the day ends.
7. By next year, he will have already visited all the famous landmarks in the city.
8. She will have already read the book by the time the movie adaptation comes out.
9. By the time the guests arrive, we will have decorated the entire party venue.
10. I'm confident that he will have graduated with honors by the time he finishes his degree.

Exercise 2: Use the future perfect simple tense to talk about future accomplishments.

1. (He / work) He will have worked at the company for ten years by the end of this month.
2. (They / save) They will have saved enough money to buy a new house before the end of the year.
3. (She / write) She will have written her autobiography by the time she turns 40.
4. (We / travel) We will have traveled to all the continents in the world before retirement.
5. (I / study) I will have studied for this exam for months before I take it.

Exercise 3: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the future perfect simple tense.

1. By the time they finish the race, we will have already prepared the celebration.
2. He will not have seen his family for a year when he returns home for the holidays.
3. I'm confident that they will have solved the problem before the meeting starts.
4. By the end of the week, she will have read all the books on her reading list.
5. The kids will play in the park after they finish their homework.

Exercise 4: Rewrite the sentences using the future perfect simple tense.

1. We will have completed the renovation by the end of this month.
2. She will have finished writing her novel by next year.
3. They will have solved the puzzle before the competition starts.
4. He will have cooked dinner by the time we get home.
5. They will have finished the project by the end of this week.

Exercise 5: Use the future perfect simple tense to make predictions about the future.

1. By the time they get back, we will have finished the movie.
2. The students will have studied for the test by the end of the day.
3. I'm sure she will have completed the marathon before it gets dark.
4. By next summer, he will have visited all the national parks in the country.
5. They will have arrived at the destination before the sun sets.

Exercise 6: Complete the sentences using the future perfect simple tense of the verbs in brackets.

By the time you return from your trip, I will have read all the books you recommended.

Exercise 7: Choose the correct tense (future perfect simple or future simple) to complete the sentences.

1. By the time you arrive, we will have finished all the preparations for the party.
2. I am sure she will have achieved her dreams by the time she retires.
3. They will already have bought the tickets when we get there.
4. I promise I will give you all the details before the meeting.
5. The kids will play in the playground once they finish their homework.

Exercise 8: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the future perfect simple tense.

1. By the time they arrive, I will have already left for home.
2. He will have learned French for five years by the time he visits Paris.
3. They will have met their sales targets by the end of the quarter.
4. I will not have finished my assignment before the deadline.
5. By next week, she will have saved enough money for her vacation.

Exercise 9: Rewrite the sentences using the future perfect simple tense.

1. We will have completed the project by the end of this week.
2. She will have finished her studies by the time she turns 25.
3. They will have traveled to all the continents by next year.
4. He will have worked at the company for five years by the end of this month.
5. They will have built a new house before the winter comes.