

Complete the following sentences with past continuous affirmative, and then turn the sentences into negative and question forms. Write short forms:

1. She _____ (play) basketball yesterday at five o'clock.

She _____ basketball yesterday at five o'clock. (negative)

_____ she _____ basketball yesterday at five o'clock? (question)

2. We _____ (study) hard yesterday afternoon.

We _____ hard yesterday afternoon. (negative)

_____ we _____ hard yesterday afternoon? (question)

3. They _____ (watch) TV when I arrived.

They _____ TV when I arrived. (negative)

_____ they _____ TV when I arrived? (questions)

4. The thieves _____ (steal) when the police arrived.

The thieves _____ when the police arrived. (negative)

_____ (Add capital letter at the beginning of the word.) the thieves _____ when the police arrived? (questions)

5. They _____ (smoke) yesterday in the morning.

They _____ yesterday in the morning. (negative)

_____ they _____ yesterday in the morning? (interrogative)

Choose the correct answer:

1. _____ [Were you having/Was you having/] dinner at 8:00 last night?

2. I _____ [weren't laughing/wasn't laughing] at you!

3. My friends _____ [were running/was running/were runing/] at 6:00 yesterday.

4. _____ [Was Tom dancing/Tom was dancing/] with Brenda?

5. Lisa and I _____ [were playing/was playing] the piano.

1. She was playing (play) basketball yesterday at five o'clock.

She wasn't playing basketball yesterday at five o'clock. (negative)

Was she playing basketball yesterday at five o'clock? (question)

2. We were studying (study) hard yesterday afternoon.

We weren't studying hard yesterday afternoon. (negative)

Were we studying hard yesterday afternoon? (question)

3. They were watching (watch) TV when I arrived.

They weren't watching TV when I arrived. (negative)

Were they watching TV when I arrived? (questions)

4. The thieves were stealing (steal) when the police arrived.

The thieves weren't stealing when the police arrived. (negative)

Were (Add capital letter at the beginning of the word.) the thieves stealing when the police arrived? (questions)

5. They were smoking (smoke) yesterday in the morning.

They weren't smoking yesterday in the morning. (negative)

Were they smoking yesterday in the morning? (interrogative)

Choose the correct answer:

1. Were you having dinner at 8:00 last night?

2. I wasn't laughing at you!

3. My friends were running at 6:00 yesterday.

4. Was Tom dancing with Brenda?

5. Lisa and I were playing the piano.